Narberth Victory Ties Team With Coatesville

Police Take Hand in Hectic Encounter Won by Davismen

DOWNINGTOWN IS LOSER

By JOHN MULLIGAN
Fighting a great uphill battle in the Main Line League second-half race, Narberth climaxed its sensational spurt with an important victory over Coatesville last Sunday on the borough diamond. Manager Gene Davis' team handed the Coates their first licking in nine starts, winning out by a 5-3 score before 3000 pop-eyed fans in a game which almost ended in a riot.

Victory boosted the Davismen into a tie for first place with Pilot Park Richards' aggregation. Both now have a record of eight victories and a single defeat.

On Saturday the Davis gang had no great amount of trouble side-tracking Downingtown here. Narberth won by a 10-7 score in a slug-fest match, with Al Herrmann and Bill Reynolds attending to the pitching.

Sunday's game was witnessed by a rabid gang of rooters who cheered or hooted every play. Likewise the players entered into the spirit of things and on several occasions Coatesville's tossers carried their onslaught to the umpires, whom they buried with a vocal tirade that had the crowd in an uproar.

Climaxing all was a sensational rally staged by Coatesville in the last inning which netted one run. A close play at the plate drew a loud vote of dissent from the visiting players and they stormed all over the home-plate territory, one player going so far as to push Umpire Bill Burton. Three Lower Merion Township policemen stepped forth to restore order before more serious trouble could brew.

It was a thrilling mound duel, featuring Johnny Jackson, former Phillies' righthander, and Lefthander Perk Smith for the losers. Both entered the game undefeated and bore down from the first pitch. Just how even they were is shown by the fact that each fanned three, while neither moundman allowed a single free ticket.

Jackson was hit hard in spots, but his teammates worked in great defensive style behind him. Once under way he worked smoothly, but was affected by the heat in the ninth and was removed. Bill Reynolds stepped in to finish the game.

Coatesville broke the ice in the second when Catcher Casso connected for the circuit with none aboard. Narberth came right back with one in its half, then went ahead with another in the third. Coatesville knotted the count in the sixth, but Jack Rubineau came through with a timely two-bagger to help Narberth to two more in the sixth and the Davismen scored again in single fashion an inning later.

One run was home and a man on base in the ninth when Reynolds put on the brakes to save the decision for Davis. A burning throw to the plate, by Centerfielder Harry Fox to complete a double play probably was all that stood between Narberth and defeat.

Perk Smith beat out a roller to first.

Son Jailed for Housebreaking

When Henry I. Faust, Merion florist, closed his home at Old Lancaster road and Highland avenue, while taking a trip to Europe, he notified Lower Merion's police department that no one was to be permitted to enter the premises during his absence.

Recently his son, Robert Faust, 35, tried to force his way into the home, according to the police. He was arrested and has been committed to jail by Magistrate C. Howard Meredith for a further hearing September 3.

Girl Crushed by Seat

Virginia Anderson, 12, of "Dove Mill House," Haverford, was seriously injured at Essex and Wayne avenues Tuesday when she was crushed by the back of a rumble seat.

The accident was caused when her mother, Mrs. Helen Mallory Anderson, backed her machine into a truck of the Suburban Construction Company, operated by John Barsby, Berwyn. The impact closed the seat on the child.

At Bryn Mawr Hospital, physicians said the girl was suffering from a fractured skull.

Tells of Fallacies

WALTER R. FARIES
Bala attorney, Republican and radio and dog enthusiast, who regaled the Bala-Cynwyd Rotarians with views on fallacies in (Democratic) American government.

Individual Rights First Attorney Tells Rotarians

Five "fallacies of political thought" were attacked Tuesday by Walter R. Faries, Bala-Cynwyd attorney, in a talk before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. Mr. Faries was introduced by Magistrate Frank P. Kromer.

The common errors, Mr. Faries pointed out, are: "The Government is supreme over the individual," "The majority rules," "The Supreme Court lacks the power to upset laws," "The United States is a democracy" and "Law makers are servants of the people." All of these common beliefs are dead wrong, said the speaker.

A careful study of the Constitution, he pointed out, shows that individual rights must come before those of the State, and that our very system of checks and balances prevents any mass action to override the rights of the individual.

Anticipate Active Fall Season

With activities at Camp Delmont over for the summer, scouts are looking forward with renewed interest to a fall season filled with scout lore. Scout Executive Rex I. Gary is formulating plans which will make the scout program even more interesting and helpful to Main Line boys than it has been in the past. With only two troops closed for the summer months, the Main Line district is well organized to take part in the district scout meets which are being planned reaching second safely on the play when Mickey Gavin muffed Buddy Walker's peg to the keystone. Dunc Entriken lashed a triple to center, but Fox's throw nipped scoring Smith with the one tally. Entriken attempted to score after Mast skied to center, but Fox's throw nailed him at the pentagon. The Coatesville players thought Umpire Burton muffed the play and swarmed all over him. So did three of Lower Merion Township police's "finest."

Johnny Brennan was the big gun in Saturday's game with Downingtown. He connected for a homer, triple, double and single. The former Lower Merion High captain drove in four runs and scored two himself.

This Saturday Narberth will play Media in a non-league game at home.

Court Grants Charter to Sportsmen's Group

Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club Incorporated as Non-Profit Organization

INCORPORATORS LISTED

A charter of incorporation was granted this week to the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club as a non-profit organization by Judge George C. Corson at Norristown.

The application, presented by George A. Purring, Narberth and Norristown attorney, who is also secretary-treasurer of the club, listed the club's assets as $250 worth of personal property.

Given as incorporators for the organization, which has about 150 members, were John A. Miller, president, Charles H. A. Chain, Dr. A. J. Denman, Joseph P. White, Walter P. Mieson, Henry J. Moller, W. H. Haws, Charles Hansell, George A. Purring, Ernest H. Jenkins, Norman S. Dorsey and Raymond B. Chain, all of Narberth; Dr. Curtis O. Whitticar, Philadelphia; Wayne D. Burnside, Bala-Cynwyd, and Albert J. Cliff, Merion.

Officers continuing under the new set-up are: John A. Miller, president; Charles H. A. Chain, Charles Hansell and Dr. Curtis O. Whitticar, vice-presidents; George A. Purring, secretary-treasurer; Wayne D. Burnside, field captain, and Ernest Jenkins, Raymond Chain and Dr. A. J. Denman, directors.

The board has been enlarged to include the following new directors: Joseph P. White, Walter P. Mieson, Henry J. Moller and Norman S. Dorsey.

The club's schedule of events includes: August 23, surf casting trip to Long Beach; September 26, outing at farm of County Commissioner William D. Ridgway; September 16, monthly meeting.

Peggy MacGuffin to Sing on Radio Twice a Week

Peggy Madison, otherwise known to the Main Line as Peggy MacGuffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. MacGuffin, of Merion, formerly of Wynnewood, now has a permanent engagement with Station WIP on Monday afternoons from 2.30 until three o'clock, with an orchestra accompanying her and on Thursday afternoons from 5.15 until 5.30 which is a solo program. Miss MacGuffin is leaving the end of this week for a two weeks' vacation in Vermont and will resume her radio work on Labor Day.

Mrs. Helen K. Fricke, of 417 Tregaron road, Cynwyd, has announced the new session of her kindergarten and first-grade school at the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd will begin September 21. Her assistants will be Miss Dorothy Tibbins, of West Chester Normal School, a Narberth resident, who aided her last year, and Miss Marjorie F. Dickinson, Wynnewood, a graduate last June of Miss Ilhan's School.

Lower Merion's police team Saturday won the Pennsylvania title at Teaneck, N. J., and placed sixteenth out of 119 teams from the Atlantic seaboard.

On August 20 the township officers will be hosts at the annual revolver matches to be held all day at the Wynnewood rifle range.

L. M. Federal Savings & Loan Elects Officers

Each Investor Guaranteed Up to $5000; Loans Made Available

OFFER 4 TYPES SHARES

Officers were elected and a charter accepted at an organization meeting of the Lower Merion Federal Savings and Loan Association, held Tuesday night at the organization's office, 35 East Lancaster avenue, Ardmore.

An outgrowth of the 64-year-old Lower Merion Building and Loan, it is now Federalized, so that each individual investor is automatically protected against loss of his account up to $5000.

Preparatory to this safeguard the association was thoroughly examined as to quality of its assets and soundness of its policy and management.

Shareholders attending Tuesday's meeting elected the following directors: Walter M. Burkhardt, Bryn Mawr, chairman; Clifford H. Arnold, Ardmore; E. Wallace Miller, Ardmore; Fred A. Moore, Haverford; Charles F. Powell, Ardmore; Horatio L. Yocum, Ardmore; Irwin M. Jamison, Gladwyne; L. A. Eppinger, Ardmore, and William S. Casey, Ardmore.

The directors in turn elected officers: L. A. Eppinger, president; William S. Casey, vice-president; Horatio L. Yocum, secretary-treasurer; Velma M. Jacques, Ardmore, assistant secretary.

Loans of the association will be limited to first mortgages, primarily on homes, on the direct reduction or "definite contract" plan, supplanting the old type share account sinking fund plan. Under this plan there is no uncertainty as to when the loan will be paid out. Interest tables will show the payment necessary to pay off the loan and interest in a given period of time. Borrowers will not be required to buy shares in order to obtain a loan.

Four different types of shares will be available in order to serve the requirements of every type of investor; they will be adapted equally to the dollar-a-month saver and the $1000-a-month investor: Original Savings (irregular amounts), Installment Thrift (regular), Prepaid (lump sum, accumulating interest), and Full-Paid Income (paying dividends regularly in cash).

The Lower Merion organization will be a mutual thrift, home-financing institution, free from government control. It is backed by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, created by Congress in 1934, affording a protection similar to that afforded by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which assures liquidity of bank deposits.

Protest Against Garage

Protesting at a hearing of the Narberth Board of Adjustment against the proposed construction of a two-car garage on the property of George McFadden, 1048 Montgomery avenue, Narberth, last Friday night were Mrs. Ward W. Pierson and her sister, Miss Eva Armstrong, of 206 Stepany place; W. J. Robinson, 304 Stepany place; Miss Caroline Justice, of 1104 Montgomery avenue, and Harvey B. Austin, of Essex avenue and Stepany place.

The board took the application under advisement.

Republicans Plan Headquarters

A "Landon-Knox" sign appeared this week over the building at Lancaster avenue and Church road, Ardmore, which will be opened as district Republican headquarters September 1, serving Lower Merion and Narberth.

County headquarters are open in the Norristown Club on Swede street, Norristown. A third sectional headquarters will be opened in Jenkintown, according to Sheriff Edwin H. Bellis.

Bank Nights Popular

Bank Nights continue to draw near-capacity crowds to the Egyptian these summer Thursdays; the thrill of seeing who will be next to benefit makes the Cynwyd playhouse a real gathering place for Main Line neighbors.

Thursday of last week Manager Joseph Conway declared a $75 dividend, and $25 apiece was presented Clay Boland, Overbrook Hills; Miss Nancy Cunningham, West Philadelphia, and Miss O. S. H. Scull, 32 Bala avenue. Due to be presented last night as this residents or the penalties added paper went to press was $125.

Boy Scouts Caused Blaze Says Penshurst Dairy Head

According to Dr. E. S. Deubler, the blaze which destroyed a barn on the Penshurst Farms, with a loss of $1500, was started by a Philadelphia Boy Scout troop which has camped there.

Dr. Deubler, superintendent of the dairy farm, says that a man told him the boys ran away last Thursday when they discovered the barn was in flames.

Farm employees formed a bucket brigade to keep the blaze from spreading to nearby buildings. The Narberth and West Manayunk fire companies responded.

Registry Assessors to Sit at Poll Places September 2

Registry assessors will sit at Narberth and Lower Merion polling places September 2, from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M. and from 7 to 10 P. M. This will be the final date for voters to change party affiliations or qualify as voters in case of change of address before the general election of November 3.

L. M. Junior 11 Starts Grid Practice Monday

At Pennypacker Field: Coach Mattis Lists Leopards' Schedule

FIRST GAME IS OCTOBER 2

Football practices at Lower Merion Junior High School will start next Monday, August 24, at 3 P. M. on Pennypacker Field. Coach Dick Mattis has issued a call for a large turnout, as there are many places on the team to be filled this year.

Only three letter-men from last year are now left with the Leopards, all the regulars having been graduated into Senior High. Those returning this year are Rocco Sabullo, Tribet Green and Guido D'Allesandro. While the chances of these three placing on the team are excellent, almost any new-comer has a possible berth on the squad awaiting him.

Last year the Leopards were undefeated and untied. They scored 232 points to their opponents' total of 19. Among the stars last season, who will try for positions on the Senior team this Autumn are Johnny McIntyre, Dick Miller, Dick Greer and Folger Mestichelli. Greer probably will be transferred to the line as he now tips the scales at just under two hundred.

Other members of last year's Leopards are Clarence Whittfield and Morton Shapiro, tackles; Charles Cunningham, center; Arthur Foot, Mick Toti and Bob Gross, ends; and James Newbi, Tony Gebbia, Dick Harlan, Charles Chambers and Bob Brenlinger, guards.

The first game on the Junior High schedule this year is on October 2, against Abington, at home. Then follow Phoenixville on the 9th, away; Stewart on the 16th, at Norristown; Smalley on the 23d, at home; Edison on the 30th, at home; Haverford on November 6, away; Radnor on the 12th, away; and Upper Darby on the 20th, at home.

Borough Has One Family on Relief; Township, 54

Narberth has but one family on the county relief rolls, a decrease of one case since last week, according to Janet C. Moore, executive director of Emergency Relief Area No. 16.

Lower Merion Township has 54 families on the rolls, an increase of eleven cases.

PENALTIES NOT THAT HEAVY—A CORRECTION

In last Friday's Our Town it was erroneously stated that "Penalties, $156.45, added to the bills of thirty-two Narberth property owners for sidewalk and curb repairs ordered by Borough Council were more than twice the actual charge made to Narberth, $69.15, by private contractors."

As pointed out by council members the penalties, $156.45, were added to bills for work amounting to $1,043.07, and the penalties are therefore only about one-fifteenth as great as last week's article indicated.

The sum, $69.15, was for work done by contractors for the borough and by contractors for the borough and Miss O. S. H. Scull, 32 Bala avenue. Due to be presented last night as this residents or the penalties added paper went to press was $125.

Merion Title and Trust One Step Nearer Another Deposit Dividend

Hope that the Merion Title and Trust Company will make a further payment to its depositors was strengthened this week, when it was learned that over half of the $683,584 loan received by the closed bank from the RFC in December of 1934 has been repaid.

In spite of the fact that the bank can make no more payments to its depositors until the loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has been repaid, State Banking Department officials feel confident that satisfactory progress is being made in liquidating the institution.

The outstanding balance of the loan was $309,100 on June 30 of this year, evidence that $374,484 has been paid back to the Federal agency.

It was this RFC loan which made possible the second dividend paid by the bank on December 28, 1934. While this payment was of ten per cent on deposits in the closed institution, the first payment, made on February 28, 1933, was of only five per cent.

State banking authorities also feel sure that the school savings account, which was held to be a preferred account after a lengthy legal battle, will be paid in full. The Montgomery County Court ordered mortgages valued at $70,000 to be set aside as security for payment of the accounts in the names of Lower Merion, Haverford and Narberth school children.

Progress is being made in the collection of hundreds of loans at first marked off as worthless in the appraisal of the assets of the institution.

Can Register September 2

According to Lower Merion Republican Leader Peter C. Hess, non-registered local voters will have an opportunity to register for the fall election on Wednesday, September 2.

Campers Climb, Compete, Clean Up Cabins, Hold Phone Rifle Match

(Editor's Note: This is the sixth of a series of letters from the boys of Ranger Lodge, Cusco, Maine.)

Time disappears even faster than the food prepared by that acme of all chefs, Jim Cairns, and the boys at Ranger Lodge awoke this morning to discover that only nine days remained before the final banquet. Much scurrying after points made up most of the week's program, but the boys did find time for a few mountain climbs.

Bob Smith again commanded a trip up his favorite Mt. Washington, this time assisted by Bob Allport, and Steve Schoff, the former a novice at the game. Such stalwarts as Bob Narigan, Harry Middleton, Dave Blue, Bob Roberts, and Chick Stoutd vied for the honor of arriving first at the Summit House, but it was little Charlie Dykes who led them all. The party ascended the difficult but interesting Lion's Head trail and came down Tuckerman's Ravine and was the only group who had the good fortune to experience clear weather.

Another Mt. Chocorua climb was led by Bill Miller and Bob Wood, with Bob Collins going along to push the old men to the top. Following the Piper Trail, the stalwart band chugged to the top in very respectable time, with Dave Sellers being the first to arrive at the citadel-like top of that rugged mountain. Others who scaled the pinnacle were Bub Nold, Joe Clausen, Dick Blue, Rusty DeBurlp, Boyd Brodhead, Dick Custer and John Heymann.

visiting Rangers in all lines of sports on Monday and Tuesday. The results were very unsatisfactory to the visitors, as only the peanut teams in baseball and tennis were able to snare victories. Bob Paine toed the mound for the youngsters and aided by lusty slugging and fine fielding from such stars as Howard McConnell, Bill Jones, Dick Longaker and Billy Ryan, disposed of the Hawthorne lads, 19-6. The senior baseball team met an entirely different fate and went down to defeat by a margin equally as overwhelming. George Paine and the ever reliable Bob Collins were shining lights, but their efforts could not match the play of the victors.

Ralph Moss and Bob Paine starred in the swimming meet, but along with Chick Dawson were the only Rangers able to splash home to victory. Ralph won the senior backstroke, Bob the peanut freestyle, and Chick outtipped all competition in the junior diving. Likewise the boys from Pleasant Lake found the competition too stiff in the track meet. Cliff Roberts steamed home by a good margin in the feature race of the day, the senior 100-yard dash, while Rusty DeBurlo was out-leaping all in the broad jump. The twelve-year-old relay team composed of Walter Karcher, Dick Longaker, Howard McConnell and Bob Paine, far outran the opposition for our only other victory.

Something new in the way of sport, a rifle match over the telephone, was shot with Camp Kingsley furnishing the competition. Here the Rangers copped victories in both senior and junior divisions as Sib Lee, Ross Collins, Ed Peterson, Ted Collins and Rolly Young shot like veteran marksmen.

A new record was hung up in the inspection race as cabins 3, 12 and the Barracks tied for top honors with no points off for the week. Steve Schoff, by dint of such tricks as having the boys leave their shoes outside the cabin, led Narrigan, Charlie Dykes and Harry Middleton to the front, while Griffiths and Matheys steered their fine broom wielders to victory for the second time in three weeks. Dan Karcher, Jack Townsend, Harley Anders and the rest should be congratulated on such a fine record. Jim Fitzpatrick's boys entered the tie in their second week together, as Frank Dunnigan, Don Rheasa and Winston Connor toiled unceasingly.

The long awaited softball game between Pop's team and Bill Miller's aggregation was finally played on Tuesday evening, with the former the victor by the close score of 8-7. Nearly the whole camp was gathered around and all agreed it was an exciting and well-played game. Close to the last out, a great play by Dick Blue and Don Rheasa extinguished Miller's last hope.

Sea Scouts Sail

Sea Scouts of the Main Line and Upper Darby Districts of the Valley Forge Council departed themselves on a mystery cruise from the Sea Scout Base, Centerton, N. J., last week-end. Anchor was weighed at 4 P. M., Saturday and the ship headed for a destination known only to the leaders of the expedition. Arrival was made at a beautiful spot at a point below the base at 8.30 P. M. and preparations made for the all-night camp. After mess, campfire was held, followed by taps.

Sunday morning was occupied by chapel and games in which all participated. At 1.30 P. M., the sailors shoved off for the base, arriving there at 5 o'clock.

Next week-end scouts of the Main Line and Upper Darby districts will be entertained by the Sea Scouts at their base. September 11, will witness the sectional water carnival to which all scouts of the district are invited to bring their prettiest dates.

"It's Love Again," "Jaws of the Jungle": Narberth; "White Angel" is Coming

The brilliant romantic comedy with music, "It's Love Again," is now playing at the Narberth Theatre, with a fine cast headed by Jessie Matthews and Robert Young.

An added week-end subject of unusual interest is "Jaws of the Jungle," a superbly photographed depiction of the life of the people and animals of Ceylon, who are forced to move to a new dwelling-place to escape a plague of "the fox that flies like a bird" (vampire bats); a realistic saga of a primitive people, with a pleasing romance, antics of a pet monkey and honey-bear, and a thrilling fight between a mongoose and a hooded cobra.

Monday and Tuesday, Narberth will play "White Angel." The story of Florence Nightingale, her fight for woman's rights and for humanitarian care of the wounded in the 1850's and especially during the Crimean War, is dramatically and emotionally enacted by Kay Francis, aided by Ian Hunter, Donald Woods, Donald Crisp and Nigel Bruce.

Wednesday, Narberth's prize night, Mary Ellis will sing beautifully in an unusual murder-mystery with operatic setting—"Fatal Lady."

Thursday's film will be a repeat performance of "Rendezvous," thrilling spy romance starring William Powell and Rosalind Russell.

Friday and Saturday, "Secret Agent" is coming, with Madeline Carroll, Peter Lorre and Robert Young.

Electrifying the Nation

More for your money than ever before! That is the privately owned and operated electrical industry's modern contribution to the American people. It provided 2,260 million more kilowatt-hours of service in 1935 than at the 1929 peak—yet the cost to the consumer, due to rate reductions, was less per kilowatt-hour than ever. New 1936 service peaks are becoming commonplace.

This, pictured as brighter homes, greater conveniences, amplified production and transportation, tells an honest story of a worthy enterprise.

The privately owned electric industry is electrifying America.

There is no more useful undertaking.
